ORANGEBURG, S. C., JAN. 24, 1879.

Mr. James L. Sims is authorized to receive and receipt for all moneys due the Edisto Clarion for advertising and subscription, and he will fill out all subscriptions to the Clarion for which we have received pay.

T. C. ANDREWS & SON.

SUBSCRIBERS to our paper who get it through the postoffice here are requested to ask for THE DEMOCRAT in calling for their mail, and then they will be sure to get it.

Mr. A. Webster has been re-appointed Postmaster at this place.

We are under obligations to Senator M. C. Butler for valuable public documents sent us.

The Court, which had been engaged since our last issue in disposing of civil business, adjourned for this term on Wednesday night.

The annual meeting of the Orangeburg Agricultural and Mechanical Association will be held on February 8th. See notice in another column.

Mr. Joseph Eros is driving the original Vienna Bakery to a complete success. He is devising plans and perfecting schemes which will add greatly to the convenience and comfort of our citizens.

The Columbia Register desires to obtain a correspondent at Orangeburg who will send it occasional letters of local and general interest. The Daily Register will be sent free in exchange for such service.

Two hundred and seventy-six thousand dollars will be paid to the families of deceased Knights of Honor in Tennessee. This is a splendid order and we would like very much to see a lodge of them organized in our town.

We invite the attention of our readers to the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows recently held at Chester, S. C., on the outside of this issue; also to an Essay, by Dr. J. W. Summers, on the Pea as a Fertilizer.

FINE red-horse are being caught in the Edisto already, which promises a good and profitable season to the fishermen of our country. In a few days more shad will begin to run and then those who have silver hooks will be delighted.

Mr. Wm. Whaley, son of Maj. T. B. Whaley, of our town, died on Friday last, of consumption. Mr. Whaley was a young man, just entering upon the prime of life with many years of promise before him. He was buried in the Episcopal Churchyard.

GENTLEMEN who would be considered au fait in matters of dress, will not roll up their pants at the heel, as formerly, but all around. The roll should not extend above the hem, except in severe cases of mud, when two rolls the width of a hem is admissible.

Will the friends of THE DEMOCRAT in the different sections of the county send us items of local interest for publication. We aim to make this the people's paper, and your interest in this particular will greatly aid us and contribute no little share to the success of the enterprise.

We were pleased to meet Messrs. John S. Bowman and Ira T. Shumaker, two of our worthy Representatives, during the second week of court. Both of these gentlemen are looking well after their long and tedious legislative labors, and entertain encouraging hopes of our political future.

The epidemic catarrh, influenza, seems to prevail pretty generally in our town and county. Scarcely a section of either has been without a case. This disease seems to be peculiar in its visitations, and no one enjoys immunity from it. The best we can do is to be prudent and careful until the season is passed.

LITTLE boys should not be allowed to go about the cars, much less attempt to board them while in motion. Very serious accidents have and may still happen from the want of strict regulations in such matters. The officers about the depot and the policeman on duty there would do well to keep a close look-out for careless children.

The Maine Reporter, No. 1, volume 1, opens with the following announcement: "Take notice that on the 27th of August last, one of the most ungodly and, we might say, the most heaven-daring and hell-deserving outrages took place in Augusta, Me., that ever was known this side of Calvary." On that day Mr. Smith, the editor, was bound over on the charge of stealing a watch.

Wagon loads of phosphates and other commercial manures are being hauled from the depot to the warehouses of our merchants. A judicious use of these fertilizers is economy, but a wild risking of money to be paid in November is folly. A good supply of home made manures and free sowing of the cow pea will secure our farmers fine crops and save hundreds of dollars.

Mr. Julius Glover, of our town, has been appointed a Trial Justice by Gov. Simpson. This appointment gives general satisfaction, because the character of Mr. Glover, his legal ability and his known sympathy with the condition of our people, and with the best interest of the county, is the best guarantee possible that he will discharge the duties of so important an office with fairness and justice.

In satisfying the desires of the heart and the craving of the body, one very naturally looks around to the place where these objects may be accomplished to the fullest extent at the least cost of trouble and money. We know of no store better appointed for these purposes than that of our enterprising young townsman, Mr. P. W. Bull. Let the reader remember this place, the man and give him a call.

Our readers need scarcely be reminded that Mr. James Van Tassel still holds forth at Muller's old stand where they have been accustomed to obtain their groceries, liquors, tobaccos and fresh lager, at such reasonable rates; or of his Restaurant where fresh oysters and every article of good eating is furnished on the shortest notice; or that he buys country produce at the highest prices. Call and enjoy his luxuries.

The recent, sudden change, from severe to moderate weather, has made colds pretty general in town and in most cases fever accompanying. Should our readers need medicines let them look in the Democrat and learn where the most reliable article may be bought; should they need blankets or thick clothing, our advertising columns will inform them where to go and from whom to buy.

CHARLESTON EVENING JOURNAL.—We are in receipt of the first numbers of the Charleston Evening Journal, a Democratic paper recently started in Charleston. We see no reason why such an enterprise should not succeed with the proper effort on the part of its proprietors. It is a neat little sheet of five columns to the page, and has the appearance of life about it. Our best wishes attend the enterprise.

The favorable weather seems to remind our gardeners of seed time and vegetables. Grounds are being broken up and otherwise prepared for sowing, but the hopes indulged now will not be realized unless good and reliable seed be procured. Examine the columns of the DEMOCRAT and go where you will get the best and freshest seed, that your faith may not be in vain or your labor fruitless.

ONE of the oldest and best established Drug Store in Orangeburg is that of Dr. A. C. Dukes. The purest drugs, the best chemicals and tested medicines are kept here at the lowest cash prices. Toilet and fancy articles, with every variety and grade of tobaccos and cigars, oils, paints, and indeed every conceivable article to be found in a well appointed first class drug store may be found here in the utmost profusion. Our readers know Dr. Dukes and will not forget to supply their wants from him.

We had the pleasure of meeting, on several occasions during the present session of Court, Capt. F. M. Wannamaker, of Lewisville, who is so justly entitled to the consideration of our citizens for the important services rendered the party in last and previous political campaigns. Captain Wannamaker addresses himself to the work of his life with his usual vigor with scarcely any perceptible wear. We wish him every success.

We invite the attention of farmers and others in need of horses and mules to the advertisement of Mr. B. Frank Slater in this issue. Their is no economy in buying old broken down mules even at 40 cents a piece, but there is both economy and practical good sense in getting a good serviceable animal from a reliable dealer, and such is the character of this lot and such is the character of Mr. Slater. Call and examine his stock.

An exchange says: "It is predicted that the world will come to an end some time next month, and if some of our delinquent subscribers don't hurry up and pay what they owe us they are going to be caught in a bad fix. But it won't be our fault, and we won't have to answer for the sins of any body but ourselves. Look out! delinquent subscribers won't stand much of a chance, and the eye of that needle is going to close down on you before you are half through." We think the delinquent subscribers of that paper ought to pay up at once, and get a receipt, as the editor is certainly very much interested in their welfare.

The following persons have checks in the County Commissioners' office, which will be paid as soon as presented to the County Treasurer: Henry Duncan, Samuel Byrd, News & Courier, Geo. H. Clark, J. M. Cope, J. D. M. Crosswell, David Ellison, J. D. D. Fairay, A. F. Edwards, Solomon Felder, F. W. Gleaton, Amos Gleaton, D. T. Gorvin, Girardeau & Co., D. D. Jones, W. E. McMichael, L. E. Myers, Randy Jenkins, Wm. Paulin, Esau Paullin, B. F. Pou, W. M. Stoudenmire, H. E. Young, C. R. Tabber, Jas. L. Rush, T. K. Keller, Joseph Cannon, J. C. Binnaker, T. J. Pou, Peter Samuel, G. J. Odum, J. A. J. Hildebrand, S. D. Gwin, Gabe Harp, E. L. Arthur, Friday Kinson, Gabe Thomas, J. A. M. Hayler, D. J. Zeigler, E. T. R. Sinoke, H. W. Kennerly, P. Doyle, Assignee.

A MEETING of the Edisto Rifles was held on Tuesday evening last, Lieut. G. W. Branson presiding, for the purpose of discussing the propriety of and perfecting measures for a Fair in aid of the command to begin on the 11th of March next. We are pleased to see some definite plan adopted, and trust that the scheme will meet with the best encouragement of our citizens. The Edisto Rifles is the oldest military organization in the county—it is a part of our town and much of the pride and honor of our people is inseparably connected with this command. Its complete equipment, therefore, in every department is a personal concern of every one who wishes to keep the honored past linked with the living present. Let our people, then, lend a helping hand in this their hour of need.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., Jan. 14, 1879.

Editors Orangeburg Democrat:

I am much pleased with your paper, and trust it will continue to improve in every particular. In our section the farmers are slow getting to work, owing to the severe inclemency of the weather and the tardiness in settling down of labor. I am sorry to see your correspondent "Farmer" intends to plant cotton—"side crops"—"both right and left." I think our Society is on the straight line and he has gotten on the turnout; how strange it is with farmers, they will sharpen knives to cut their own throats—it is true we are in debt, but by perseverance and industry it is to be hoped they will soon realize that "a diversified industry is a nation's prosperity." It is not claimed that either the Society or the Association have the best talent as to agriculture in the country, but it is so that both certainly have some of the most intelligent, practical and "practice-what-they-preach" farmers in the State and some of us know it if "Farmer" does not. If he will attend our meetings he will reap much benefit from the discussions.

I learned that a small colored child on Capt. John L. Moorer's place was so badly burned last week that it died from the effects a day or so afterwards—also that Mr. L. R. Beck was painfully injured by a runaway and kicking horse on last Friday as he was confined to his bed for several days, but by prompt medical attention is improving rapidly.
